

“Over the years, my wife and I have enjoyed sailing on nine cruises. I have cruised the Caribbean, Hawaii, Alaska, Panama Canal, the Baltic and the Mediterranean. I truly love helping my clients experience the same remarkable moments that we have enjoyed.”

Pete Doll

As a past cruiser with Jade Travel, we are proud to introduce you to Pete Doll, a true cruise specialist.

After a distinguished career as President and CEO of the YMCA, Pete Doll joined Jade Travel in 2007. He has since been recognized for achieving the ‘specialist designation’ by all major cruise lines. Pete has achieved their highest level of recognition and continues to learn through on-going education. He stays informed of all changes involving the cruise industry, and can help you find the perfect itinerary and value for your next cruise experience.

My Pledge to My Customers

You have my assurance that I will do everything possible to ensure that this is one of the best, and most memorable, vacations you will ever take.

In addition to handling your reservation, here are just some special services you can expect to receive from me:

- You will know up front what your trip will cost. Your price will include port charges, taxes, etc. There will be no hidden charges and you will not pay extra for my services.
- I will provide information on your port excursions and sightseeing options.
- I am available to assist you in completing embarkation forms, reservations for shore excursions and other ship services. I am always just a phone call away.
- I will provide you with many special tips and recommendations to ensure your trip goes as smooth as possible.
- I am available to solve those occasional travel problems that may occur.
- I will always respond to your questions in a timely manner.
